

MISSOURI BANKERS MEET.

Highly Successful Meeting of Representatives of Banks in Group V.

Tuesday at Marshall.

A good representation from the banks of the fifth Missouri group of the state organization, held their annual Fall meeting at the Mistletoe Clubrooms in this city, Tuesday. The local bankers pronounce it one of the most enjoyable and successful meetings ever held by any district, comprising country banks. About twenty-five visiting representatives were here, to profit by the discussion of subjects relative to their duties and interests.

The program had been arranged with much care, being carried out almost exactly as arranged. Geo. B. Harrison Jr., of Glasgow, acted as chairman; upon being called to order, Rev. J. F. Kemper offered the invocation, followed by J. P. Huston in an address of welcome.

The order of business was then taken up and the following papers read: Usefulness of Banks, Mr. Frank P. Hays, President Mo Bankers Association, St. Louis.

Relation of the City Banker to its Country Correspondent, Mr. C. O. Austin, Cashier Mechanics Bank, St. Louis.

Relation of the Country Bank to its City Correspondent, Mr. Geo. B. Harrison Jr., Vice President Mo Bankers Association, Glasgow.

My Experience in Charging Exchange, Mr. W. H. Powell Jr., Cashier Citizens National Bank, Sedalia.

Annihilation of Overdrafts, Mr. J. L. Woodbridge, Cashier Bank of Saline, Marshall.

At the banquet which followed business, the following toasts were responded to:

Mr. J. B. Thomas, Albany, Toast Master, Our State Association.

Response, Mr. B. F. Clark, Stewartsville, Good of the Order.

Response, Mr. Gordon Jones, St. Joseph, The Banker—His Discouragements.

Response, Mr. J. S. Calfee, Windsor.

The time of the afternoon train west, cut short this feature of the meeting, as several of the bankers left upon that train. J. L. Woodbridge's paper has been mentioned by many as a very fine exposition upon the subject; of such worth at least, that the writer has been invited to give the St. Joseph group the benefit of his views upon the subject of "Overdrafts."

Those recorded upon the secretary's roll book as present were:

W. S. Wells, Wells Banking Co., Platte City; B. F. Clark, First National, Stewartsville; C. O. Austin, The Mechanics Bank, St. Louis; A. W. Lay, Farmers Bank, Lincoln; J. P. Huston, Wood & Huston, Marshall; R. Field, Morrison & Wentworth Bank, Lexington; Gordon Jones, Stock Yards, St. Joseph; Frank P. Hays, Little & Hays Invest Co., St. Louis; J. C. Cobb, Bank of Odessa; C. D. Rogers, Bank of Slater; G. H. Althouse, Bank of Marshall; J. L. Woodbridge, Bank of Saline, Marshall; Chas. Hoefler, Bank of Higginsville; J. B. Thomas, Bank of Albany; D. A. Abury, American Bank, Rig-gsburg; F. P. Seal, Union Nat. Bank, Kansas City; Jas. A. Gordon, Farmer's Savings Bank, Marshall; J. S. Calfee, Citizens Bank, Windsor; E. H. Lewis, Middleton Bank, Waverly; P. C. Armentrout, T. W. Lacy, Farmer's Savings Bank, Marshall; G. E. C. Sharp, A. Olson, Harry Francisco, Bank of Saline; J. C. Lamkin and W. S. Huston, Wood & Huston Bank; W. H. Allison, Bank of Marshall; Geo. B. Harrison, Jr., Glasgow Savings Bank.

It is with much pleasure that the management of the opera house announce the engagement of that funny man, Barney Ferguson, in his latest comedy success McCarthy's Mishaps, which comes to the opera house next Saturday night. That is one of the few farces that is doing what opera house managers style a record breaking business as standing room has been at a premium at nearly every place they have played so far this season. The comedy is termed by the press and the general public as being one of the most gigantic and colossal ever perpetrated upon amusement lovers. The company is composed of the best known vaudeville and farce comedy fun makers and is larger than usually visits cities this size. Pitts and Webster have the direction of the comedy and this is sufficient to prove to patrons of the theatre that in seeing McCarthy's Mishaps, they will get all the fun and laughter that they could possibly stand in one night.
